(updated May 23, 2014)

+ Florida first held a sales tax holiday for school supplies in 2007. This was not re-enacted in 2008-09. Georgia first held a school supply holiday in 2004 and energy efficiency holiday in 2006. They were not re-enacted in 2010-11. These states enact their holidays each year.
* Details for some state programs are not available yet, website points to 2013 program.

Note, if your state is not listed, legislation has not been approved authorizing a sales tax holiday. Contact your state legislator for more information.
